Writ (Part 1) and the contract rights identified in the remaining bullet points of the Writ (Part 2).
Following the sale, the Court learned that counsel for an Avid affiliate, Hanna Carfield, placed a losing bid during Part 2, resulting in an NLV counter. While ultimately, this became the winning bid, the process effectively increased the amount paid by NLV during the sale. In light of this development, the Court (a) stayed execution of the Writ and (b) directed the parties to Accordingly, the Court LIFTS the stay previously imposed and declares NLV the successful bidder of property subject to the Writ, for a total price of $20,000.

It is so ORDERED this 14th day of January 2025.
